American Language Center

Your English Connection to the World

Welcome

Located in the exciting city of Los Angeles, the American Language Center (ALC) shares the UCLA commitment to high academic standards and quality instruction. Let us show you why the ALC is the preferred destination for English language studies.

Program Variety

Because people have different reasons for studying English, the ALC offers a full-time intensive academic program focusing on all language skills (including high-level university preparation) and a full-time intensive communication program emphasizing listening and speaking skills. In addition to offering individual English courses, the ALC specializes in English programs for the workplace and other custom-designed programs.

Educational Pathways

When you finish your English studies and if you meet the requirements, you can enter one of more than 50 UCLA Extension certificate programs, enroll in UCLA Summer Sessions for UCLA credit, or continue your studies in a community college, university undergraduate, or graduate degree program.

Student Services

Our friendly staff will help with program selection, housing information, academic advising, and finding interesting things to see and do around Los Angeles. Since you will need an F-1 student visa for our intensive programs, the ALC staff and International Student Office (ISO) will provide necessary documents and assistance.

Location

The ALC is located in Westwood Village, one of the safest and most attractive neighborhoods in Los Angeles. Westwood Village is the gateway to the beautiful UCLA campus, and you'll find restaurants, shops, and movie theaters within easy walking distance.

Activities & Sightseeing

If you're looking for things to do and places to go, you'll never be bored in Los Angeles. In addition to being the film capital of the world, L.A. is alive with great theater, music, museums, sports, shopping, amusement parks, beaches, and recreation of all kinds. Buses, subways, and trains make it easy to visit Disneyland, Universal Studios, Hollywood, San Diego, and Santa Barbara.

All these reasons and many more make the ALC one of the best places to study English. We look forward to welcoming you in person!

Sincerely,

Patrick Colabucci
Director
American Language Center

Location, Location, Location

Southern California is a land of contrasts, with sunny beaches, lush gardens, Wild West deserts, and snowcapped mountains. Not far from Las Vegas and the Grand Canyon, the region boasts its own attractions, including Disneyland, Sea World, and Universal Studios. Cities like Santa Barbara, Palm Springs, and San Diego are all just a few hours away.

Los Angeles

Located on the Pacific Coast in the southern part of the state, Los Angeles (L.A.) is the largest city in California. The warm, sunny year-round climate is ideal for outdoor sports and recreation, including swimming, surfing, golf, tennis, hiking, and many other activities.

Well-known for Hollywood and the film industry, L.A. is also a hub for international business, fashion, design, and culture, offering a wide variety of museums, concert halls, and live theater.

If you like to shop, you'll love Beverly Hills, Century City, the Beverly Center, and Santa Monica's Third Street Promenade.

Los Angeles features large Hispanic, Asian, Eastern European, and Middle Eastern communities—all with their own local neighborhoods and cuisines.

Westwood Village

Westwood Village is the "hometown" of UCLA, UCLA Extension, and the American Language Center. It's also one of the safest and most comfortable places to live in Los Angeles. Westwood Village borders the UCLA campus and Bel Air—home to L.A.'s rich and famous—and is only a short bus ride away from Beverly Hills, Santa Monica, and the beach.

Westwood Village features theaters, shops, markets, museums, and a variety of restaurants, including many types of fast food, cafés, Asian noodle shops, Middle Eastern specialties, French pastries, and California cuisine.

University of California, Los Angeles

UCLA

2

Founded in 1919, UCLA is one of the most prestigious and top-ranked universities in the U.S., and also one of the most beautiful. With more than 40,000 students, UCLA features a College of Letters and Sciences—with both undergraduate and graduate programs—and 11 professional schools, including Engineering, Medicine, Law, and Film & Television. The distinguished faculty includes Nobel Prize winners, Guggenheim Fellows, members of the National Academy of Sciences, and other prestigious academic organizations. UCLA is also known for its libraries, award-winning athletic teams, performing arts, and cultural offerings.

UCLA Extension

UCLA Extension is the largest single-campus continuing education program in the world and offers a wide variety of individual courses and programs to Los Angeles residents, international students, and working professionals. Fields of study include business and management, computer programming, engineering, entertainment studies, cinematography, English as a second language, and many more. UCLA Extension has special strengths in designing new and creative programs that bring together the expertise and resources of UCLA, UCLA Extension, and the greater Los Angeles and Southern California communities.

The American Language Center (ALC)

As one of the departments within UCLA Extension, the ALC provides English language training to speakers of other languages. The ALC offers:

- Full-time intensive English programs
- Part-time individual courses
- On-site English for the workplace
- Other custom-designed programs

ALC classes usually take place at UCLA Extension's Lindbrook Center, a beautifully designed building located in the heart of Westwood Village. The building offers modern, well-equipped classrooms, state-of-the-art language and computer labs, a large student lounge, and an outdoor patio overlooking the lively neighborhood.

Most ALC instructors have master's degrees in Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL). Since many of them have lived and worked in other countries, they understand the challenges that ALC participants experience as they adapt to the language and life of the United States.

Because individuals have different learning styles, our instructional approach incorporates a variety of strategies and techniques. ALC instructors do everything possible to be helpful, to create a comfortable learning environment, and to encourage students to take an active role in their learning. All ALC instructors and staff are committed to providing the highest level of customer service.

“ I chose Los Angeles for the cool lifestyle and sunny weather. The university is like a park where you can rest and study or enjoy the pools, gyms, and libraries. ”

– Kristina Galkina, Russia

Support Services

The services that accompany an English language program are often just as important as the program itself. Dedicated UCLA Extension and ALC staff assist you in getting settled in Los Angeles, becoming accustomed to academic life, and providing helpful information while you are here.

3

Academic Counseling

The ALC academic advisor assists students with:

- Group orientation sessions
- Deciding on their next course of study
- United States college and university application procedures
- Guidance for studying in UCLA Extension professional certificate programs

F-1 Student Visa Advising

The International Student Office (ISO) provides:

- Assistance regarding visa and immigration issues
- Preparation of documents for student visas
- Approval for travel while maintaining F-1 visa status
- Advice on visa status changes, transferring between schools, and temporary travel outside of the United States

For assistance regarding visa and immigration issues, call (310) 825-9351, or send an email to iso@uclaextension.edu.

Injury & Sickness Insurance

Injury & Sickness Insurance is included in the American Language Center's student services fees. This insurance allows you to visit a UCLA hospital or clinic if you need medical attention while you are studying at the ALC. On the first day of your program, the ALC will give you an insurance identification card and provide more detailed information on your insurance coverage. Please note: Permanent residents of the United States are not eligible for this insurance.

Library

www.library.ucla.edu

The UCLA Library, one of the top 10 academic libraries in the U.S., has multiple locations where students can study or read. To get a library card to borrow books, bring your ALC ID and $20 to the front desk of the Research or College Library.

Computers

ALC students can access two multimedia computer labs at UCLA Extension's Lindbrook Center, available after school on a first-come, first-served basis for approximately 90 minutes a day. In addition to free high-speed Internet access, these labs offer language-learning tools and software to practice skills such as grammar, listening, TOEFL, IELTS, pronunciation, and more.

Language Partner Program

The Language Partner Program matches interested ALC students with Americans who are studying a foreign language so they can meet and practice their language skills. For example, a Korean student can meet with an American who is studying Korean, and they can have conversations in English and in Korean. Not only do the conversation partners have a chance to practice the language they're studying, they also have an opportunity to become acquainted with one another's culture. This voluntary program is organized by an ALC academic advisor.

Student Life

As an ALC student, you'll have access to UCLA's recreational facilities, the ability to explore Los Angeles during field trips, and enjoy entertainment and culinary experiences available in Westwood Village.

Housing

ALC students typically live off campus, usually in privately owned residence halls, homestays, or furnished apartments. Off-campus, non-UCLA housing is available year-round; students make reservations directly with housing providers. A list of housing options is available on our website (see above). UCLA on-campus housing is available in summer only; see international.uclaextension.edu/housing for details.

UCLA Recreation Privileges

www.recreation.ucla.edu

At the beginning of the program, you'll receive an ALC ID card. This will permit you to use a variety of recreational facilities on campus, including:

- Los Angeles Tennis Center: eight lighted tennis courts
- Sunset Canyon Recreation Center: 25- and 50-meter pools with picnic/barbecue areas
- John Wooden Recreation and Sports Center: fitness center, racquetball, basketball, and rock climbing
- Marina Aquatic Center: located on the Pacific Ocean—for sailing, windsurfing, and kayaking

For a small additional fee, you can take courses in fitness, dance, martial arts, tennis, and swimming. These classes are great ways to learn new skills, relieve stress, and meet other UCLA students with similar interests.

Class Field Trips

In addition to in-class study, many of our students go on field trips with their instructors to various points of interest around Los Angeles. Field trip locations might include museums, courthouses, high schools, and businesses. These trips take place during class time to enrich your studies and provide an interesting look at the local community and culture.

Local Tours

The ALC works closely with an independent tour company that schedules tours to local attractions and events in the Los Angeles area, such as Hollywood, the Getty Museum, Disneyland, and L.A. Lakers and Dodgers games. Excursions can also be arranged to other destinations in California and the Southwestern U.S., such as the Grand Canyon, Las Vegas, and San Francisco.

Transportation

www.metro.net

UCLA and the surrounding communities have excellent buses, subways, and trains that provide convenient access to destinations throughout Southern California. The ALC can help students find schedule information.

Southern California Attractions

Amusement Parks

Southern California features some of the most exciting amusement parks in the country. Frequent tours are organized to Disneyland, Universal Studios (with its working movie studio and a wide variety of rides), and Magic Mountain (known for its thrill rides). Just over two hours away by car are San Diego's Sea World and the world-famous San Diego Zoo and Safari Park.

Museums

The Los Angeles area is home to many world-class museums, including the UCLA Hammer Museum, Getty Museum and Villa, Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Norton Simon Museum, and Huntington Library and Gardens.

Hollywood

The birthplace of the movie industry, Hollywood is about 30 minutes away from UCLA. The Hollywood Walk of Fame and Chinese Theatre, Madame Tussauds Hollywood, and Paramount Pictures are just a few of the many attractions and places to visit in "Tinseltown."

The Beach

Santa Monica State Beach is located just 6.6 miles (10 km) from Westwood Village and is accessible by bus. The beach features bike paths, volleyball courts, surfing lessons, numerous shops and restaurants, and a world-famous pier with roller coasters.

Sports

Los Angeles hosts many professional sports teams, including baseball's L.A. Dodgers, basketball's L.A. Clippers and L.A. Lakers, hockey's L.A. Kings, and soccer's L.A. Galaxy. If you prefer to participate rather than watch, you can swim or surf at beautiful beaches, ski or hike in nearby mountains, or explore the rugged beauty of the desert.

Frequently Asked Questions

Is Los Angeles safe? The American Language Center and the UCLA campus are located in Westwood Village, one of the safest neighborhoods in the city.

What is the difference between UCLA and UCLA Extension? The University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) is a comprehensive research university that offers bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. UCLA Extension is the branch of UCLA focused on world-class career preparation and training, with courses taught by industry professionals and leaders. All courses offer a UCLA-approved education, with many available for college credit.

What are the requirements to study at the ALC? You need to be at least 18 years old by the program start date. The full-time intensive programs require F-1 student visas and application materials to be submitted before arrival in the U.S. TOEFL or IELTS scores are required for Pre-Master's Preparation only.

Is there an application deadline? We recommend applying 8 weeks before your program start date to guarantee space availability and to allow enough time to obtain an F-1 visa.

Can I arrive after the program begins? Students may arrive no later than the end of the first week of instruction.

Can I attend a 3- or 4-week program on a tourist (B-1/B-2) visa? Tourist (B-1/B-2) visas are accepted only for American Culture and Communication (ACC), a part-time morning course designed for people visiting the United States on a short-term basis for business or pleasure.

How do I find and reserve housing? The ALC provides information about residence halls, furnished apartments, and homestays. You may request UCLA on-campus summer housing information through the ALC. All off-campus non-UCLA housing reservations must be made directly with the housing providers. We strongly recommend that you arrange your accommodations at least 30 days before the start date of your program. Housing contracts and arrangements are not the responsibility of the American Language Center; see page 4 for housing details.

How long does it take to learn English? It depends on your current language level, motivation, and exposure to English outside of class. Beginning-level students usually need a year of intensive English instruction before applying to an American university.

How will you decide my class level? You will take a placement test on the first day of school and be placed in the correct English level (basic, intermediate, or advanced).

How many students will be in my class? Class size varies from 15 to 22 students. The average class size is about 18.

Who will my classmates be (age, nationality, etc.)? Your classmates will be international students from all over the world. Most students are between 18 and 30 years of age.

Will I automatically be admitted to UCLA if I study in your English program? No, admission to full-time study at UCLA requires a separate application process. Even if you're studying in the most advanced levels of our intensive programs, you need to follow UCLA's admission and departmental requirements and meet all application deadlines.

Will your English program help me prepare for the TOEFL or IELTS? Yes. ALC classes offer the necessary skills that you need for these standardized tests. In addition, the ALC offers TOEFL and IELTS preparation courses as electives.

If my English is advanced, will your English courses still be useful for me? Advanced students whose scores are below 100 on the TOEFL (iBT) still benefit from the high-level vocabulary, essay writing, and critical thinking skills included in advanced-level courses.

Do I get a certificate after I finish your program? Yes, if you satisfactorily complete the program.

Can I get a job while studying at your school? If you have an F-1 student visa, you may work only on the UCLA campus. Work hours cannot exceed 20 hours a week while you attend school full-time, and 40 hours a week during vacation.

What if I'm under the age of 18 and I want to study at the ALC? The ALC does not offer programs for students under the age of 18. However, Summer Discovery (www.summerdiscovery.com/ucla) admits younger students to its program on the UCLA campus.

Can I take UCLA or UCLA Extension classes while I study English? Yes. Students who place into AIEP level 107 may take one UCLA or UCLA Extension course with special permission.

Intensive English Communication Program (IECP)

4-Week Program

- Communications Program is a 4-week (20 hours/week) program designed to improve English language communication skills and fluency.
- All classes employ interactive classroom activities: pair work, group work, role plays, group discussions, and communicative games.
- Video and computer-based lessons and field trips reinforce classroom activities and material.

12-Week Program (i12)

- 12-week immersive English communication course. Students in this program study in the IECP Program for a full quarter (12 weeks).
- Students participate in engaging English language immersion lessons and activities.
- Through these activities, students improve their English while building a community, volunteering, mentoring new students, taking class field trips, and completing leadership tasks and presentations.
- This web-enhanced course gives students many opportunities to meet and talk with Americans, to improve their English in real-world language situations, and to participate in a learning environment that is comfortable, friendly, and stimulating.
- Students also share their experiences and complete tasks on their own i12 community Facebook page.
- Several three-day weekends during the course also allow students to use their English while exploring and traveling throughout California and beyond.

Course Length

- IECP offers a monthly 4-week session, a 12-week program in the Winter, Spring, and Fall Quarters, an 11-week session in the summer and one 3-week session at the end of the summer.
- Students can enroll for 4, 8, or 12 weeks per quarter, for up to 9 consecutive quarters, with new study material in each 4-week session.
- Classes meet Monday through Thursday for a total of 20 class sessions (50 minutes each) per week.
- Friday classes are scheduled the first week of each session, and sometimes to make up for holidays that occur during the week.

Description of Levels

- 3 levels (intermediate prep, intermediate, and advanced)
- Students at the basic level may be reassigned to the Academic Intensive English Program

For program application, please visit uclaextension.edu/applyfees.

American Culture & Communication (ACC) Course

uclaextension.edu/acc

The ACC Course is designed for individuals, 18 years or older, who are coming to L.A. primarily for business, tourism, and/or family visits. This course is for part-time study only and does not qualify for the F-1 student visa.

ACC helps participants improve their English and learn more about American culture and life in Southern California through three 50-minute morning sessions, 4 days per week. Possible topics include Pop Culture Discussion, America Through Television, Media Studies, Grammar Focus, Idioms, Business English, and more. Dates correspond to the IECP schedule.

All ACC applications must be submitted in person at the ALC administrative office. ACC is for individual participants only, not for groups of students.

“ALC’s Intensive Communication program offered me many chances to use English. The excellent teachers listen to students with patience and kindness.”

– Dokyung Kim, Korea

Advanced Study Options While Studying at ALC

Studying English at the ALC opens the door to a variety of educational opportunities, including certificate programs, community colleges, and universities.

Study Options for Advanced AIEP students

Students in advanced levels can:

- Receive 10-11 units of transferable university credit
  - Take UCLA or UCLA Extension credit classes while studying at ALC
  - Apply to 35+ partner colleges and universities without TOEFL or IELTS scores
  - Be released from one or more elective classes to pursue independent studies
- Access to UCLA Extension and UCLA courses is never guaranteed in advance. Students must take the ALC placement test first and be approved for non-ALC courses by the academic advisor.
- The ALC cannot guarantee spaces in specific courses; enrollment is always on a space-available basis, and extra fees apply.
- The decision to accept transfer credit depends on individual colleges and universities, not UCLA or UCLA Extension.

UCLA Extension Certificate Programs

UCLA Extension offers more than 50 certificate programs for professional development in fields such as business, entertainment studies, computers, and graphic design. These certificate programs are approved for F-1 visa status.

Eligibility

Admission is open to international students who have the equivalent of a U.S. high school education and who achieve a specific minimum TOEFL iBT or IELTS score within the last 2 years. ALC students completing level 107 with an overall grade of A- or higher are eligible to enter most UCLA Extension certificate programs without taking the TOEFL iBT or IELTS.

Costs and Length

The average total cost of most programs (9-12 months) is between $7,000 and $12,000.

“ ALC offered a unique combination of activities and courses that prepared me not only to get my L.L.M. degree from a top university but also to function in daily and work life. ”

– Benedetta Cicconi, Italy

College and University Programs

Community Colleges

ALC students who want to pursue undergraduate degrees in the U.S. can start at a community college for their first 2 years of study and then transfer to a University of California (UC), California State University (CSU), or a private university to complete a bachelor's degree.

4-Year Colleges and Universities

An ALC academic advisor can provide a variety of information on California and other U.S. undergraduate and graduate programs. For most colleges and universities, students must submit their applications 6 to 9 months before the start of a degree program.

Questions regarding the ALC's conditional admissions agreements can be emailed to the ALC academic advisor, Judy Tanka, at jtanka@uclaextension.edu.

• Attending UCLA Extension's American Language Center neither guarantees admission nor assists students in gaining admission to UCLA.

Cooperating TOEFL/IELTS Institutions

The following institutions will waive language proficiency requirements, if ALC students have completed 1 of the 2 advanced AIEP levels. Completion of AIEP level 106 is required for community colleges, level 107 for 4-year colleges and universities.

Pathways to Success

ALC → MBA

Olga Marina: Kazakhstan

“After a year of taking intensive English classes at the American Language Center, I felt confident in my ability to handle graduate-level academic work. Thanks to ALC’s professional teachers and a carefully designed curriculum, I got the essential language skills that helped me graduate from Pepperdine University with a Master’s Degree in Global Business.”

ALC → Law School

Abdulrahman Nabil Alsaleh: Saudi Arabia

“After completing my academic English studies at the American Language Center, I was accepted at USC, one of the top law schools in the U.S. I completed my LLM degree and currently am a second-year PhD student in Corporate Law and Governance at Indiana University and a visiting research scholar at Harvard University.”

ALC → Certificate Program

Thais Melani: Brazil

“I chose UCLA Extension because of its high teaching quality and because UCLA is a globally recognized educational institution. The IECF program in particular supported me to improve my English communication skills and my intercultural skills. It also prepared me for the TOEFL exam, which is one of the requirements for Certificate Programs at UCLA Extension. As a result, after just one quarter at the American Language Center, I was able to enroll as a full-time student in the Project Management Certificate Program.”

Student Testimonials

Aslihan Alhan: Turkey

"I recommend ALC because the course is multi-faceted: students can learn writing, listening, grammar, reading and speaking, and spelling. Teachers are very kind, supportive, fair, and deliberate, and help you gain self-confidence. They don't only teach language but also American culture at the same time. They organize activities together, so students can learn about Los Angeles life and participate in UCLA campus events."

Nastaran Khodadani: Iran

"I have been studying at the American Language Center for a year, getting high marks and reaching the advanced level. As a result, I had no difficulty getting accepted into a master's degree program at an American university. I really appreciate all the teachers and staff at UCLA Extension for teaching me and for giving me this opportunity."

Kazuma Koseki: Japan

"The teachers are really helpful, kind, and motivated; they are more excellent than the word 'excellent' could express. I really feel that if I had not learned English at ALC, I would not be as successful as I am. While studying at ALC, I was planning to pursue an MBA, which means native-like English ability was a must. ALC helped me pass all the requirements such as the TOEFL and the GMAT that I needed in order to be accepted by business schools. Indeed, I passed all of these tests within six months and eventually completed my MBA degree on an academic scholarship."
